

This is one example of the complex folded shapes that are possible using the latest folding and pressing machinery in the EDM manufacturing plant.

All the integration details between the folded feature product and the building façade are designed for structural integrity and fully weathered.

The constant investment in new production software and equipment means EDM can offer increasingly more complex shapes in lengths up to 6000mm.